Travel, Meals, and Lodging

Meals and Lodging

There is not a meals and lodging package available for this course. Students are required to arrange all lodging and food.

There are no nearby campgrounds, but several hotels are in the area.

Food service is not available on campus during the course, so we recommend you pack a lunch, as well as dinner on days with evening class sessions. A sink, mini fridge, and microwave will be available, as well as kettles for tea and coffee. Please bring your own mug with a lid.

Travel

Navigate to Lewis & Clark College at 615 S Palatine Hill Rd, and Enter at Gate 7 for the graduate campus. The course is held in the South Chapel.

There is no parking fee on campus during the course days, but please do not park in spots designated for Staff or other designations. Public transportation is infrequent and not recommended.

Equipment List

Please bring the following items to be prepared for the course:

- ☐ Warm Layers / clothes that you don't mind getting dirty
- ☐ Rain gear (jacket and pants)
- ☐ Indoor shoes or slippers, so we don't track mud into the classroom. (Crocs are popular)
- ☐ Boots or shoes that can be worn in the mud
- ☐ Warm hat and gloves
- ☐ Mug with a secure spill-proof lid
- ☐ Lunch
- ☐ Wristwatch (phone timers are impractical for taking heart rates etc, since your hands are full and it may be raining)
- ☐ Day pack or backpack (to carry supplies outdoors to treat patients in scenarios)
- ☐ Waterproof foam pad to sit on when assessing patients (ground probably wet & muddy)
- ☐ Water bottle
- ☐ Headlamp with batteries- optional, up to you (for finishing SOAP notes at 4:30 pm in the twilight)
- ☐ Sun glasses (if forecast suggests them)
- ☐ Notebook, pen or pencil
